Local Matters.

Postmaster Cook has returned. Dr. J. M. Marshall is expected back on tonight's train.

Went a Western inside our town a commercial visit this week.

Milton and Flagstaff will again cross hats to-morrow afternoon.

A dance will be given at the Wood Hall next Friday evening.

Duck shooting is still to be good chumblers, about 20 miles west of here.

Joe Dillon, deputy sheriff and assessor, is in town on official business.

The residents of Prescott Junction will trip the light fantastic this evening.

Wm. Sexton, special insurance agent, is here adjusting the claims of G. A. Bray.

Glass, grain and flower seeds on hand at the flour and grain depot of J. Sanderson.

C. E. Boyce, the pioneer merchant of Williams, was a Flagstaff visitor this week.

Mrs. John Vories and her two little boys came home yesterday after four months' absence visiting in the east.

There will be a meeting of the Militia Company next Wednesday evening for drill. All members should attend.

Miss Madeline Wheeler took her departure on Wednesday's train for El Paso, Texas, where she will hereafter reside.

Clara Rutledge, an old Flagstaffite, has returned home again after an absence of three months in the Walnut Grove country.

The engineer, F. L. Frains, who gave the alarm at Sunday's fire cannot be given too much praise at the hands of the people of Flagstaff.

A meeting of the stockholders of the Central Arizona Railway Co. will be held at their office in Flagstaff on Tuesday, April 8th, 1890.

Walter J. Hill left last Thursday afternoon for Prescott to attend to matters connected with the Masonic fraternity of which he is a high member.

A. E. Macomber and family have returned from Southern California. They visited Los Angeles, San Diego and San Bernardino during their absence.

About three or four inches of snow fell here Monday and Tuesday but was all gone before Wednesday night. That's the kind of country to live in.

F. Fairchild, who was burned out at Sunday's fire has had a temporary place constructed on Railroad Avenue, and is prepared to meet his customers in the tent saloon.

The game of baseball between Milton and Flagstaff last Sunday afternoon was a most interesting game, and was witnessed by a large number of people. The score was 9 to 8 in favor of Flagstaff. Another game will be played to-morrow between the same clubs.

The CHAMPION has enlisted the services of a gentleman in Williams to act as its courier on, and, hereafter, the paper will each week contain a letter from that prosperous town.

Mr. David Babbitt returned last Thursday morning from a six weeks visit to his old home in Cincinnati, Ohio. He was accompanied by his wife and babies. He says that business generally throughout the East is pretty dull.

M. Salzman's spring and summer samples have arrived and measures will be taken by him. He sells custom made clothing cheaper than any other place in the United States. If you don't believe it, come in and I will prove it.

Tom Davis, the genial representative of H. S. Bridge & Co., Merchant Tailors of San Francisco, Cal., will be in Flagstaff about April 11, with a fine line of samples of spring suits. If you contemplate sending off for clothes save your orders for him. He guarantees all his work or money refunded.

J. B. Clifford, President of the Cincinnati and Southern R. R., H. J. Trent, President of the Mutual Life Insurance Co., and Miss Barker, President of the National Indian Association, came in on a special car last Thursday morning. Friday they left for a trip to the Cliff Dwellers, and today started for a week's trip to the Grand Canyon.

At a meeting of Flagstaff Co. V. G. A., on the evening of April 1st the following non-commissioned officers were appointed: T. J. Sullivan, 1st Sergeant; J. C. Newman, Quartermaster Sergeant; Jno. S. Tinker, 1st Duty Sergeant; Bane Black, 2nd Duty Sergeant; Will Hockberger, 3rd Duty Sergeant; and Otto Jones, Will Price, W. J. Murphy and Phil Granger, Corporals.

In calling for any of the above letters please state that they have been advertised.

Geo. H. Cook, P. M.

The Funeral Couldn't Proceed.

There are still some towns in Maine which neither railroad nor the summer visitor has invaded. In such a town the greatest event is a wedding or a funeral. In a little village on the Upper Penobscot the monotony of a long winter was broken by the funeral of the year-old child of one of the church deacons. The whole town poured out to the funeral services. They were ushered into the parlor, and there sat with an air of sorrowful expectancy, waiting for the ceremonies to begin.

Something had gone wrong, and the guests grew impatient. Finally the Deacon appeared at the door. His face was long as he said: "My friends, excuse this unseemly delay. We have mislaid the corpse!"

After much trouble the object of their search was found. The little coffin had been placed on a table in the hall where it had been forgotten by the bereaved family, and the guests, as they entered, had thrown off their wraps upon the table and thus the oversight was caused. The corpse being found, the services proceeded as usual.—Sun.

PHOENIX MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, OF HARTFORD, CONN.

Agency at Flagstaff, March 31, 1890.

The sum total of premium receipts actually taken for the Phoenix Mutual Life Insurance Co., of Hartford, Connecticut, by this agency up to date is Three and Nine and 5-100 Dollars (309.05), these being the first statement published in accordance with law.

J. H. HOSKINS, JR., Agent. Sworn to and subscribed before me this thirty-first day of March, A. D., 1890.

W. L. VAN HORN, Notary Public.

Cara of Thanks.

I desire through these columns to extend my sincere thanks to the citizens of Flagstaff who worked so hard in saving my stock of goods during the recent fire.

Very Respectfully,
 GORHAM A. BRAY.

THE FIRE.

One Block of Business Houses Consumed by the Flames.

Fire started last Sunday morning about 4:10 in the rear of C. H. Clark's merchandise store, which part was used for the storage of coal oil. The flames soon spread and the adjoining building on the south, (Sawyers hall) which was used by F. Fairchild soon caught, then G. A. Bray's store, when the flames crossed over to the opposite side of the street, and consumed the whole of it. There was very little water to be had and of course all the work that could be done was to save other buildings which were in danger. The wind was very high, but fortunately blew in the right direction, or the fire would have consumed half of the town. As near as can now be ascertained the losses is as follows:

C. H. Clark, stock of general merchandise, $7,000; no insurance.
 G. A. Bray, dry goods and furnishing goods $15,000; insurance $8,000. A good deal of stock was saved from this store, but the amount is not known yet.

F. Fairchild, saloon, $1,000; no insurance.

Babbitt Bros., building, $1,000; no insurance.

T. G. Norris, building, $800; no insurance.

J. H. Hoskins, Jr., building, $800; small insurance.

Dr. D. J. Brannen, two buildings $1,000; no insurance.

The origin of the fire was certainly the work of an incendiary, as no fire could have possibly started in this locality otherwise. After and during the fire there was considerable stealing going on, and Deputy Sheriff Black, made two arrests (Mexicans) who were tried before Justice Weatherford and sentenced to 10 days each.

WILLIAMS WHOOPS.

Great boom coming, in the fullness of time.

Bob Self has a new pig.

Williams is to have a newspaper in the near future.

Mr. Gooseneck has opened a new barber shop.

We too will have gold mines—in the fullness of time.

Frank Payne, the Bellemont Ice man, was in town this week.

The new Stone Hotel will be built under the shades of Old Bill Williams, in the fullness of time.

William has three saloons open day and night.

The road to the Great Grand Canyon will also be built in the fullness of time.

Conn & Nellis have moved into the "Hobo Jack Saloon."

"Hobo Jack" expects to return to Williams, in the fullness of time.

John Tabor has tastily repainted both his hotel and saloon.

The village Barrister, will leave for Washington, D. C., to attend the Supreme Court, in the fullness of time.

Harry Slossen predicts a tremendous turnip crop this season.

A suitable man will be found to accept the very lucrative position of Constable, in the fullness of time.

The "Bill Williams potatoes" are becoming famous, over 700 tons were shipped from here this winter to different parts of the country.

A movement is on foot to fill the gap in the professional circle and no doubt a clergyman can be induced to come and live among us, in the fullness of time.

The following beautiful poem was not written at early eve, nor at midnight's proud hurrah, but rather at the uncertain hour of dawn:

WILLIAMS WHISKEY

Oh! sparkling, but deceptive fluid! Thy label should read, "Beware!" The inspirations from thy cup, Are but "Castles in the air," What carest thee for misery, Since all thy mission is, To raise, h—l in this community. And give the lawyers biz.

Scrap of Figs.

Produced from the laxative and nutritious juice of California figs, combined with the medicinal virtues of plants known to be most beneficial to the human system, acts gently on the kidneys, liver and bowels, effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds and head aches, and curing habitual constipation.

Wonderful Results
 The use of Hood's Sarsaparilla. Severe cases of scrofula, upon which other preparations have been powerless, yield to the peculiar curative powers of this medicine. Distressing cases of dyspepsia, excruciating complaints of the kidneys and liver, agonizing itches and eruptions, rheum, disordered cases of catarrh, and aches and pains of rheumatism, are cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla. It purifies the blood, and at the same time tones the stomach, creates an appetite, and gives strength to every function of the body. Give it a trial.

General Debility
 "For four years my wife suffered with large tumor bunches on the glands under the arms, and general debility of the whole system. She became so poor in health that we were on the verge of despair regarding her recovery. Physicians did not seem to understand her case; at all events she never derived any benefit from their treatment. She finally concluded to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. The immediate effect was so marked and satisfactory that she continued to take it, and this is the result: She has gained in weight

From 34 to 111 Pounds and is stronger and in better health than she has been for years. The bunches under her arms have diminished, and we believe Hood's Sarsaparilla will be too much for them in time." T. J. XONCROSS, 236 Commercial Street, Boston, Mass.

STANLEY IS BACK!
 And Has Electrified the World

By the announcement of his safe return to civilization. His adventures and discoveries have been GRAND, WONDERFUL, MARVELOUS. The world has seen nothing like them before. His thrilling adventures, marvelous discoveries, daring exploits, astonishing privations, wonderful trip across the Dark Continent, how he found Emin Bey—Everything will be included, from his first entrance into Africa to the present time. Everybody wants the new Genuine Stanley Book!

From Stanley's own writings and dispatches. Over 400 of the grandest and most wonderful engravings and colored plates ever seen in a book of travels. It has been eagerly awaited, and will be more sought after, make more money for the agent and make it easier than any book issued for the past fifty years.

CAUTION
 Old and unreliable agents of Stanley's travels are being published. Do not be deceived by old books, rehashes and battered plates. We announce this to protect our agents and the public against the numerous, worthless so-called Stanley books—all of which are simply old books that have been in use for years, and are now being offered as new books, with a few pages of new material added.
